Staffordshire Women's Aid is an innovative, award winning, charitable organisation that has been providing specialist services to those living with, fleeing or recovering from the impact of domestic and sexual violence since 1976.

We are looking to recruit an Independent Sexual Violence Advisor (ISVA)

You will provide a range of trauma informed practical help, advice and emotional support to victims/survivors who have experienced sexual violence, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation and/or sexual coercion. This also includes support to navigate the criminal justice system for those victims who have reported to the police, providing accurate information on victims' rights under the Victim's Code of Practice and referring to other agencies as appropriate.

This post is based in Stafford and will include hybrid working.

A full driving licence and access to a vehicle are essential requirements of the post.

To apply for the position, please visit our website www.staffordshirewomensaid.org where further details including application form, job description and person specification can be downloaded.

Closing Date for applications is 9am on Wednesday 4 October 2023

Interviews will be held on Thursday 12 October 2023

This post is restricted to women due to the nature of the role. The Occupational Requirement under Schedule 9(part 1) of the Equality Act 2010 applies.
